Making statements as to volume of sales, quality of goods, service, etc., is easily done, but facts as a basis for such statement is what really counts. On Dec. I we will move to our new location, 227-28 S. Main street. We will spare the expenditure of neither money nor energy to make our service and merchandise values to our patrons bigger and better than ever. We are merely performing a solemn obligation to the public and our friends, and we are sure, as in the past, they will continue to give expressions of gratitude through their support and patronage. Our pleasure is greatest when we please our customers. We have many good items priced below the market. See us quick and get a share.
